ABOUT THE NSM

The National Statistics Month (NSM), organized by the Philippine Statistical System (PSS) and spearheaded by the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA), is being observed annually through conduct of activities which are geared at promoting, enhancing and realizing public awareness and appreciation of the importance and value of statistics to the different sectors of society.

OBJECTIVES OF NSM

To promote, enhance and utilize nationwide awareness and appreciation of the importance and value of statistics to the different sectors of society.

To elect the cooperation and support of the general public in upgrading the quality and standard of statistics in the country.

STATMAN

Official Mascot of the National Statistics Month

The mascot of the National Statistics Month, STATMAN, represents a statistical symbol that is commonly used in statistical theory and its application.

The mascot symbolizes the sign "Sigma" (Σ) which is used to denote standard deviation or variance in human endeavors.

The figure also symbolizes the sign "Sigma" (Σ) which is used to denote summation of society's efforts and endeavors.

The Left Arm and Torso, taken altogether, symbolizes the sign "Chi-square" (χ²) and is used to denote independence and collectively of units, groups and decisions while maintaining harmony with the government.
